Easter Greetings - 2014

Dear Friends,

I just want to share with you a very beautiful little poem, penned by a very beautiful saint! Her name – Estelle Lister! She went home to be with the Lord in October 2008, aged 102. She wrote the most beautiful poems during her twilight years. Here is one I want for you to be blessed by, this Easter Season. It is proof that we can be useful to God; to bring glory and honour to His Name, no matter our age. We just need remain intimate with Him, and do as He instructs! Here is the evidence, of a life of obedience, well lived! Amen! Be Blessed!

Light for Darkness!

*I gaze - at the near horizon,
As the sun spreads the rays or'e the hill,
I just think of the light of the Saviour
When they snuffed it - on Calvary's Hill.
The darkness of men's hearts - revealing,
And the blackness of night gathered in;
While Jesus cried – "Father forgive them
And – men carried on, in their sin!*

*He could have called, thousands of angels
He could have come down, from the cross,
But the battle was won – and the story it tells
Of – a lone shepherd, just seeking the lost!

*They were the sheep that He came for
And all of our sins - which He bore;
Such wonderful Love – Jesus brought from above
But they rejected, and spurned Him, the more!*

*Now LIGHT is much stronger than darkness,
And JESUS ROSE FREE from the grave;
The battle was done, and the VICTORY WON
The Blood of Atonement – was made.
So – as I look to the far horizon,
Though it seems such a long way ahead;
That Jesus will come, at the rise of the sun,
In the sky, we will greet Him instead!*
